BASE BALL

AT HOME

The Bartenders of Weston are playing the local mixers at Union Park this afternoon, and a good crowd is in attendance. Dick Goodwin is doing the twirling for Clarksburg.

When Cincinnati comes it is understood that Andy Gaughan is going to take down that sign on the middle-field fence.

The Kindbergers of Wheeling will be here Sunday. The best men in Wheeling will be brought. One of the stars of the team, Phil Woods, is a brother of Ed. J. and Fred Woods of this city.

Either Red Laing or Specht will be in the box for the visitors. Frank Kincheloe, who is known in every town in the state, will be on first.

When Cincinnati comes it is said that every car in the city will make two direct trips to the ball ground before and at the conclusion of the game. That will handle the immense crowd nicely, it is thought.

The benefit game for the Norris family will be played on next Tuesday evening. It will be called at 6 o'clock in order that all may have a chance of attending. The best material in the city will be in this game, and an intense, good-natured rivalry will be found, as both captains and players will do their best to win this one. It is the first and probably the last chance to see an inter-city game this year.
